Biography

Josh is preceded in death by Granny Faye and Papa Bud, Grandma Kathy & Grandpa (Cowboy) J.C. Holt, Grandfather Gary Perkins, Grandmother Jerry Thompson and a cousin Daniel Charles Stanton-Burnett 12 yrs old, 7 months ago.

Josh is survived by his mother and father Susan Faye and Corp. James Loren Foster of Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1 sister & 5 brothers. Jacob & Joshua of Sapulpa, Justin, Shelby, Donnie & Dylan all of the home. Grandparents Randy & Janie Dunkin of Sand Springs; Eddie & Dee Foster of Sapulpa, Aunts & Uncles Janie & Justin Burnett of Hoffman, Randy Joe Perkins of Tulsa, Lester & Anita of Sapulpa; Aunt Peggy & Aunt Jerri Lynn of Okla. Several cousins, great aunts Susie, Sherry & Holly and Great Uncle Glen.

Josh was such a sweet, sweet loving boy who never met a stranger. If you knew Josh you automatically loved him and wanted to protect him. Josh was a very special person who loved to fish and hunt. He would spend every minute of the day and night in the woods if his parents would've let him and sometimes when they didn't. He was such a nature person he loved all nature from a lizard to a black bear and would try to catch or trap all of them. Josh loved to take things apart but couldn't always put them back together. Josh loved his family very much, Josh loved everyone he had a heart as big as Texas. Josh never judged people no matter what might be wrong with them. Most times he would make them his friend.

Josh you will be very missed on this earth but this is not goodbye it's so long for now and we'll see you when we get there. Have the fish ready to fry. WE LOVE YOU!
