“ The day I went up to Paddington place to get a job josh was the first person I see. He smiled at me and just went along with his business. He was the reason I started there. Nothing will fill my heart like little joshy. I'm glad I got to meet him and him be a big part of my life. The day I took him outside it was the very first nice day after the cold weather,he didn't want to get back into his chair, he wanted to play in the grass and throw sticks. We shared many laughs, played, and danced many times. I will miss him so dearly, rest easy little joshy, I love you big big❤️

“ You are so right that Josh loved his food! I would bring him little Debbie or other cupcakes and he would gobble them up happily. He also loved to play with a ball❤️ I know he's in heaven now free of pain and moving and communicating freely.

“ My son was the light of my life, he was the first to make me a Momma. Joshua had a pure soul, he never hurt anyone and had the most beautiful smile. I loved him with all my heart, I was blessed to bring him into the world and I was blessed to be holding him when he passed. I will never be whole again never! I'm devastated heart broken now I'm sick with Grief! Everyone who touch Joshua in some way shape or form Loved him. I'm never going to be the same.

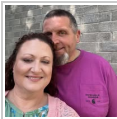

Heather Wyatt - March 06, 2022 at 02:35 PM

Josh was a gift from God! An angel on earth. Completely innocent and full of smiles. Josh has completed his work on earth. He has gone home to be with our father in heaven! We love Josh and he will be greatly missed.

Joshua was a very special boy, I've known him since he was 18 years old. He was everyone's special little guy including the other residents he lived with. Our place is definitely not the same with him gone. I'm blessed that I was able to take care of him and cherish the memories and moments that I remember. RIP little Joshy and fly high💕
