

Judy Kay Dillashaw

May 21, 1952 - July 3, 2024

Judy Entrekin Dillashaw peacefully entered into eternal rest on July 3, 2024, joining her heavenly Father. Judy, born on May 21, 1952, in Gadsden, Alabama, leaves behind a legacy of compassion and dedication. She resided in Muskogee, Oklahoma, where she served as the charge nurse over the 6th floor of Creek Nation Hospital, retiring after a distinguished career. Her journey in healthcare also included impactful roles at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Beverly Hills, California, and as Director of Rehabilitation at Mission Viejo Hospital, along with dedicated service at Brookwood Hospital.

Judy's professional life was marked by her unwavering commitment to patient care, providing comfort and support to countless individuals. Her kindness and expertise touched many lives throughout her career.

Judy had a deep affection for cats of all kinds, each finding a loving home in her heart.

She was a devoted wife to her beloved husband, Michael Dillashaw, and shared a special bond with her daughter, Jana Massenburg (Kenneth). Judy was a loving grandmother to Adley, Aida, Aaron, and Ahna Kay Massenburg, whom she cherished dearly. She was also a caring mother to Juston Osborne and Jessica Brown, and a cherished grandmother to many other grandchildren. Though life's paths sometimes took them in different directions, the moments of love and care she shared with her family are cherished memories.

Judy is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Lucille Entrekin, and her sister, Gail Damkoehler. She held them close in her heart throughout her life.

As we celebrate Judy's life, we find comfort in God's grace and mercy. May her legacy remind us of the importance of compassion and understanding.

The family extends heartfelt gratitude to her sister-in-law, Dainah Vaughn, for her unwavering support. Special thanks also go to the caring staff at Porta Caeli House, whose compassion exceeded all expectations.

In the words of John 14:1-3 (NKJV), "In My Father"
