“ When I think of Judy I think of the saddle club arena and us kids playing while the grownups rode horses, rodeos, parades, and going to Meadville R-IV HS. Good people come in little packages. Rest in peace sweet lady.

“ She was with me during some dark times, and wonderful ones as well. Her fierce fire burned so bright and strong and though I regret letting distance and life get in the way of staying in touch in the past several years, she and the family were ever in my thoughts. Her ability to stop everyone in their tracks with just a phrase, to get the most heated hot-heads to come together and find resolutions, her mischievous humor, her wisdom shared with me when I needed it most, and her kind heart....I will miss all of these. The world is dimmed with her loss, and we are all better for having known her. Go with love, my friend and family-of-choice.
