

Judy Sasse

September 11, 1959 - November 3, 2022

JJudy Gail Sasse, 63 of Locust Grove, OK went to be with the Lord on November 3, 2022. She loved to worship and praise Him as she listened to Christian music.

Judy was born in Leavenworth, Kansas on September 11, 1959. She never knew her parents, but leaves behind a half sister, Roxy Spencer of Leavenworth.

Judy was a huge animal lover and left behind her many beloved dogs (her "babies"). She will be missed by many people including her friends, Keith and Beth of Locust Grove. Her "adopted" family will miss her most of all.

She spent a great deal of time at the home of Kathy Stephens, who she always called "Mom". She especially loved Kathy's son, Carl Stephens, who she spent a lot of time with and called him "Brother". Carl's sister, Lisa Gautreau was also very special to Judy, and she called her "Baby Sister". Kathy's sister, Glenda Trotter, was another mother figure in Judy's life, and she had a name for her, "Momma Sue".

Judy loved carnivals, fireworks, rodeos, fishing and looking for unusual rocks in the creeks, float trips and the Kansas City Chiefs.

Judy would want to give a special thanks to her faithful workers at Emerald Hospice.

And last but not least, Judy loved her Pastor, Jeff Blair, who showed so many acts of kindness and care for her. She was very inspired and encouraged when she watched his online services at Freewill Baptist Church in Locust Grove.

A memorial service will be held at the church at a later date.

Tribute Wall

CS

“ 7 files added to the tribute wall

Christina Salas - August 30, 2023 at 01:45 AM

CS

“ I just found out today that you passed mamma. I am not sure why you didnt mention me, your daughter in your obituary, but I guess you had your reasons. I hadnt heard from you in over 5 years...but I just want you to know I love you and I wish I had had the chance to tell you one last time and me and your grand children pray your with Jesus now,good bye mamma..love your baby girl.

Christina Salas - August 30, 2023 at 01:33 AM