Judy May Stewart

12-20-1949 to 12-04-2023

Judy was born December 20th, 1949, in Bakersfield California and grew up in Hominy, Oklahoma to parents, Earnest and Juanita (Smith) Colbaugh. Judy passed from this life December 4th, 2023, at Clarehouse in Tulsa, Oklahoma, surrounded by her family.

Judy grew up in Hominy, much of the time spent riding her beloved horse, Starlight and tagging along with her cousins, more like brothers, Jack, and Bill White along with many other family members.

She was raised in the Nazarene church and loved singing in the choir. Her voice was one of her greatest gifts.

Judy followed many career paths over the years, but the one she was proudest of was her position as receptionist for Jackie Cooper Imports in the nineties. She was “Mom” to many and greeted everyone with her infectious smile.

In 1998, she met the love of her life, Gerald “Rub” Stewart. In addition to their children and grandchildren, their mutual love for camping, fishing, and horses provided many happy memories for her.

Judy also loved to bake, sew and embroidery. Every holiday season she especially looked forward to making cookies with her grandchildren. She also got great joy out of making personalized baby blankets for everyone.

Judy is survived by Chrissy Crites of Broken Arrow; Jessica Eubanks and her husband Bobby of Wagoner; grandchildren, Breanna and Rachael Crites, Maggie Francis, Bryston and Dixie Emerson, Layne Eubanks, Abigayle and Mayzi McCarthy, Jacob and Allie Lockwood, Hunter, Colton, Jacob Stewart, great grandchildren and numerous family and friends.

Derrick Lockwood and wife Casey of Galena, KS, Gerry Wayne Stewart, and his wife Traci of Muldrow;
