

Julie Anne Brewster

September 26, 1964 - October 31, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

VL

“ Virginia Lane lit a candle in memory of Julie Anne Brewster

Virginia Lane - January 29, 2019 at 07:29 AM

VL

Sister. there are no words. The tears don't stop. Although I hope to see you again, God willing, as you were a firm believer, the grief is here and now. You were and are a blessing in my life. Rest in peace beautiful soul.

Virginia Lane - January 29, 2019 at 07:33 AM

Father's day 2018, Julie came out to celebrate with me, Vern's Dad and my son. We went to the Sunday Brunch @ Riverbend Arena Steak house. Julie looked fabulous in a long, sleeveless turquoise sheath. While in line, I accidentally tipped my plate and spilled BBQ ribs all down her back! We sponged best we could, and after our meal, we watched Barrel racing, and she gave Dad a knife she purchased there. We went back to Dad's and Julie came out of the bathroom in SHORT shorts and a tube top. Dad gasped and she said "Don't panic Dad, I know you've seen women in their drawers before". I felt terrible about the dress, but she said working at a laundry sweat shop taught her how to remove the stains. I loved her spirit and her amazingly quick mind. With her keen wit and sharp powers of observation she missed nothing. I will miss you Little Sis, every day for the rest of my life.

Virginia Lane - February 28, 2019 at 09:43 PM