Brenda, please text or call me. I'd like to tell you about Karl's half brother that you and Karl never met. This is not a scam and none of us need money or anything like that. He would maybe like to connect and find out some family history. Thank you, I am Aria Avalon at 805-363-2961. Thank you. Please text first before calling so I'll know.

“ To the Man that loved me first,

From the time you saw my little blue eye's and soft blonde/bold head it was no the less than love at first site. Even if I was the unexpected miracle. You spend many of years accepting my company by your side, because to me you are the most amazing, strong, can fix anything man. You are my super hero. You loved me first, and I love you first. You will always be my daddy. Life is about change, an I see that clearer as I age. Life however was more simple when I was a child, you and mom where my whole world. However, truthfully you were more important to me than mom. You always let me be me. Even when I stole your tools. It's was a sign that I, myself had become a mini of you, the man I cherished more than I could ever express. As we grow, I have learned all the wonderful things you taught me. And no one could do it as good as you. We went through life, first as father an daughter, than to best friends. There wasn't a day that went by that you and I didn't spent time together, sometimes it was just sitting on the porch quite for hours. For us that worked. I will miss you so deeply, i will miss the smile that stretched across your face when you would see me. I will miss all the wonderful things you and I did together as father and daughter. You did an amazing job loving me first and teaching me how to love another. I love you Daddy forever & always. Love your baby girl Heather Jeann
