

Katherine Dee Taylor

September 3, 1950 - April 9, 2024

Katherine (Kate) Taylor passed away at her home April 9, 2024. She was born September 3, 1950 to Alfred Clark and Katherine Taylor, who preceded her in death. She grew up in Hammond, Indiana where she attended school. After graduation, she went to the University of Indiana at Bloomington where in 1972 she received a Bachelor's Degree in Art. While there she made life-long friends with Sandra Murphy, Wilton Mitman, Donna Daniels and her best friend, John Graves.

With her parents, she moved to NW Arkansas before they moved to Tulsa. She was employed at the Tulsa World for around 25 years before her retirement. She was in the Advertising Department where she worked with the movie ads. She had a great knowledge and love of movies, especially the Wizard of Oz. Another love was for dogs and she had at least one up until the last year of her life. Also, she was a big Barbie fan and had a collection of all things Barbie.

Kate was a wonderful person, who was good to her friends, was creative and a talented artist. She will be missed by her former co-workers at the World and all others who knew her.

Tribute Wall

“ Kate was best friends with me from the time we met at Wright Quad Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana from the time we first met in September 1970 until her death. I will miss her immensely. Memories of her are throughout my home, as she sent me dozens of gifts through the years. I have made a Wizard of Oz tribute to her in my backyard. Rest in Peace dear friend.
