“ Linda and I were very close friends in high school. Unfortunately we lost track of each other later and I have been searching for her for a few years. I was devastated when I saw the post of her obit on line. My prayers and thoughts are with her family.

“ My mom, I'll miss you. Thanks for encouraging me to go and be brave. Thanks for packing me up for boot camp. And unpacking it and repacking it. Thanks for encouraging me to teach children. That saved me and gave me purpose. Thanks for saving me from marrying a man I didn't really love and so packed me up again. Gosh, you were fearless in your life! You have shaped me and I hope that now when you are unencumbered with your body and free from turmoil, you will understand how much your girls loved you. I love you, Mom. I hope everyone enjoys seeing these photos. They do not do her justice. She was much more.

“ I love and miss you so much. I can't imagine never being able to see or talk to you again. I wish more than anything that I would of answered your calls when sometimes I didn't feel like talking. You were a beautiful person linda, funny and always so caring. And I gotta say, the best cook ever. I loved everything you made when you would visit. Especially your chicken gumbo. I'm going to learn how to make it. I love you and I will think of you everyday for the rest of my life. I hope you can hear me when I'm talking to you. And when its my time we will be together again.
