“ This is a note to Linda’s 2 sons, I wish I had known her longer but she and I lived too different lives, but I have no bad memories of your Mom, and it’s my only regret, but for the short time I did get with her, she loved you both and her grandchildren so much. It’s the one thing her parents and family couldn’t take from her and that is the way she loved unconditionally. Her pain is now over and now she can’t rest and be there in everything you do

“ Linda was my oldest sister, I didn’t grow up knowing her but after the death of her Mom, in 2006, there was a reunion and all the siblings came except Melba apparently the 4th sibling of 6. Linda would tell me about when I was a baby and how she would watch me, mostly she knew that our bio-mother didn’t want me. I grew up outside the family and was taken away at a young age. I grew up alone, away from all family and the rest carried on without me and I was better off apparently. I got to spend the last few years of Linda life getting to know her and I don’t regret that at all, I miss her and she showed me kindness, she was honest, upfront and would talk to me about what her life had been. She had two sons just like me, the other siblings had girls but the two of us shared stories of raising sons. I wish there had been more time. Your pain is over my sister rest in peace
