“ My mom was a person who cared for everyone and everything. She was always a person to check on you if you were sick or hurting. She was always there to listen when I needed her. I am the person I am today because of her. Her love for her fur babies was great, she loved all 6 of them. I miss her more now then ever.

“ My cousin Lori was the oldest of us "kids", making her the leader of the bunch, the cool kid, and the one I looked up to. Growing up, our family met every Friday night for dinner at Granny and Papa's. It was wonderful! And those family dinners are the memories I'll cherish for the rest of my life.

Lori was an encourager, always ready with a shoulder to lean on. She overcame many obstacles during her short life and did it all with a roaring laugh. Man, I'm gonna miss that laugh!

A few years ago, Lori and I had a conversation about Jesus that was deep and meaningful in ways I'll never forget. It was one of those moments that shape a life. Lori was loved by all and she loved us in return.

To the Whittle and Charboneau family, We are heartbroken at losing Lori too soon. We love you and are here if you need us.

Lori became a part of our family in 1986 when she married my nephew, Darryl Shipman. They shared almost 20 years together before Darryl passed away in 2006. Lori continued a close bond with our family after her marriage to Roger Charboneau. She was deeply loved by Darryl's mom, Nancy Creel & brother, Terry Shipman as well as the remainder of our family. Lori always showed compassion to those around her but would stand her ground if necessary. Although I've been unable to spend much time with Lori the past several years, I knew she had a great love for our entire family as did we love her. Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with Roger, Julie, Jerred, Kaylee and all the Whittle family. I am so very sorry that we will be unable to attend the service due to illness. May each of you feel God's comfort, strength & love in the days ahead. Love to all, Ed & Barbara Hovey, Karen, Vicki, Michael & families
