“ Rest in peace Uncle Shorty, Thanks for all the memories, learning experiences, advise, and being not only my Uncle, but a friend. I will surely miss all of our visits, hunting, and fishing together. Now there is no more suffering just eternal life with our Lord and Savior and all of your love ones and friends that made it to glory. I'll see you in just awhile.

Love you, Rick Evans

“ Shorty, my sister Mary Jo, and I were 3, 4, and 5 years old when we first meet and shared our childhood together on North Birmingham Place in Tulsa. So many good memories through the years together. RIP Shorty, I always felt like you were a brother to me.

Sincerely, Sherrie Jean
