“ *Mark sir
You were always the calmest, kindest, most patient man in the room. Can't thank you enough for all I learned from you at the Door Shop and later Windor. I remember you on your motorcycle when I was a small kid, thinking you were so cool. I respected your style and how you made hunting and fishing a priority in life. It was a life well lived. I'll miss you, my sister and my dad so much. God bless you and you family sir. Im sure the bass are monster size in heaven.*

“ Kena, I remember how bad you wanted that ring and to be married to Mark. You were so happy when you finally got it. I can still see you in your tiera at your bachelorette party. Mark chose you to spend the rest of his life with. True love! As Mark has entered heaven, my sincere prayers are with you and his family during this very difficult time of loss.
