“ Just found out about Marty he was a very special person to all that k oe him n will never be forgotten,he loved his momma n dad n his brother and of course Clarissa his only biological daughter,he lived across street was having a hard time trying to make it with 4 kids he was special in his on way but we had very long talks about his life n he did believe in Jesus n he wanted to go be with his dad,they were very close n the one person that could really relate to him n understood him,hopefully we can all learn from his mistakes n live for today be happy your going to be with your daddy n grandma there waiting for you Marty n there gonna take you down the right path Trust n Believe we will meet again you were so small when I first meat you Kevin n Darin you were all such good kids n your mom did what she could for what she had she loved all her kids n they loved her as well,I love you Marty now you can finally rest in peace.until we meet again ,one of your oldest friends
