

Max LaVille Wright

December 5, 2012

May 23, 1928 - December 1, 2012

Biography

Max LaVille Wright 84, passed away at St. Francis Hospital surrounded by family, Saturday December 1, 2012 to complications of a severe stroke.

Max was born May 23, 1928 in Norris City, IL. to Arthor W. Wright and Jessie Verline Wright. Max was an enthusiast of the old time classic cars and a classic car builder in the 1970s and 80s. Later in his life he became a writer and wrote two books Holy Blood and Queen Rule and his autobiography. Max is survived by his wife Roberta Joan Wright of Broken Arrow and his four children Mark L. Wright of Tulsa, Terry Gwain Wright of Stillwater, Elizabeth Ann James and Rosemary Wright who resides in death with her dad Max.

Services

Friday, December 14, 2012 at 12:00PM

Fort Gibson National Cemetery

Facts

Born: May 23, 1928

Place of Birth: Carmi, IL

Death: December 1, 2012

Place of Death: Tulsa, OK

Occupation: Automotive Builder

Survived By

Roberta Wright, Wife

Elizabeth James, Daughterd in Death By