

Melvin Dean McCurley

March 26, 1957 - November 9, 2024

Melvin Dean McCurley, 67, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, passed away, leaving behind a lifetime of laughter, love, and dedication. Born and raised in Tulsa, Melvin was known for his quick wit, a smartass sense of humor, and a heart that never hesitated to help others. He shared an inseparable bond with his beloved wife, his partner in both life and their longtime repo recovery business, which he ran tirelessly for over 40 years.

Melvin's passion extended beyond his work—he was a classic car enthusiast, a devoted NASCAR fan, and above all, a loving father, stepfather, grandfather, and great-grandfather. To his family, he was the person you could call no matter the time or need; he would always find a way to help. Melvin joins those who preceded him in death: his parents, a son, a daughter, a brother, and a sister.

Melvin will be deeply missed by all who knew him. His legacy of kindness, humor, and devotion lives on in those he loved.

Tribute Wall

JL

“ I remember all the rides to get repos and we was friends since 1981 he was a true friend and was always there to give advise if needed ...I will miss you my friend

John Laird - December 28, 2025 at 10:37 PM

AM

“ I love and miss you so much!!! Fly high and give them hell!

Amanda111794@gmail.com - November 12, 2024 at 11:55 AM