

Muriel Ione Woodward

September 12, 1930 - January 3, 2023

Muriel Ione Lammy Woodward was born on September 12, 1930 to Fitz and Elsie Lammy. Muriel grew up in Barbados in the West Indies where she developed a talent for business.

Muriel was affectionately called "Sug" by friends and family because of her sweet nature. She was the tenth of eleven children from the union of Fitz and Elsie Lammy. Muriel loved the Lord and she loved to sing and dance. Her favorite gospel singer was Joseph Niles and she could be seen clapping, dancing and getting her praise on to his melodious gospel music. Muriel served as a member of the United Methodist Church in Hartford, Connecticut under the leadership of Rev. Hugh Hamilton.

Muriel touched the lives of many people with her infectious laugh and her generosity. She was always ready to give even when she didn't have. She loved to be around people and was an excellent hostess. She was lovingly called "Mudda" by all who knew her. Muriel dedicated her life to being a good mother. Her meant everything to her. Her main desire was to see them succeed in life.

“ *It is with a heavy heart that I express my Sincere (late) condolences to all the family and friends of my dear aunt Sug on her passing. My dear cousins your mother/ grandmother was a beautiful soul. As a small boy I was privileged to grow up in Bawdens, St. Andrew Barbados surrounded by a big happy supportive family. Sug was one of my favourite aunts, pretty, ever smiling and generous. Her fond memories linger. As the angels welcome another angel home, we pray that she remains at eternal peace. We hope also that her fond memories bring you, her close and loving family, much comfort.
