“ I miss you a lot man. I try to live life without regrets but not talking to you more when I could or hanging out with you more will be a hard thing for me to overcome. We met when I was in a dark place. I'm waning in and out but by the time I'd gotten a bit better. You were already gone. I was too late and I'll always wish I'd done more and pushed harder to know you while I could. You were so fun to be around, truly a beacon of kindness and inspiration. Miss you forever. You will always be in my thoughts.

“ I am so sorry Nathan. I wish we had spent more time together. You were always so kind to me. The last time we spoke you were checking in on me regarding my mom. To learn you passed around the same time hits me hard. I wish I could have given you a hug. I hope wherever you are now that you are at peace. Just know you left an everlasting impact on us. We miss you. Save me a seat, we'll make up for lost time someday. Until then, love you my friend.

“ I'm going to miss him so much. We played games online for almost a year straight, he had become such a big part of my life. His humor and enthusiasm is something I will continue to carry with me. Rest easy my friend.

“ I've been thinking about Nathan a lot. He made every day I talked with him so much better. He had so much love in his heart and made so many others feel safe and welcome. I hope he's resting easy now.
