

Norma Jean Charles

October 2, 1946 - July 2, 2025

The 23rd Psalm

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

“ Norma and I were neighbors for years in Florissant, Missouri. Once a month we would have a girls' day out. She was so kind, so sweet. Every now and then she would call asking if I wanted some of the 7-up pound cake she used to make. I missed her so when she moved away.

“ Grandma Norma,
You were a beautiful woman inside and out. Even though I wasn't your blood, you welcomed me with such gentleness and care. I've never forgotten that.

We often think we have more time, but life teaches us otherwise. I just want to say I truly love you, and I thank you for your kind spirit.

May your love and light live on through your son and grandson. You will always be remembered.

With Love,
Cayla

“ I remember the first day I met you. I was so enamored with how cool you seemed to be and you were my inspiration and became one of my best friends. You have so many great qualities, but for those that know you, already know, so no need to list them. Just know that, I love you always. Rest well beautiful lady until we meet again.

TJ - July 05, 2025 at 04:44 PM

Family I love y'all both incredibly a lot!!

Terrell Johnson Sr. - July 08, 2025 at 08:17 PM

“ She came into my life during a time of uncertainty—right in the middle of my teenage years when everything felt a little confusing. But with her quiet strength, endless patience, and genuine kindness, she brought a calm I didn't know I needed.

She never tried to take up space that wasn't hers—she simply showed up with love, and in doing so, left a lasting mark on my heart.

The impact she made in my life will never be forgotten. Her grace, her warmth, and her way of making people feel safe will stay with me forever.

Rest peacefully. You are so loved.
