

Ossie Lee Lavow, Jr.

September 22, 1960 - April 16, 2020

On September 22, 1960, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Sylvia (Brown) and Ossie Lee LaVow, Sr., welcomed a bouncing baby boy into the world, they named him, Ossie Lee LaVow, Jr. Ossie would become the sixth of seven children born into this family.

Ossie confessed his belief in Christ at an early age at Vernon AME Church, under the pastorage of Rev. Ben H. Hill. Ossie was very active in all the youth activities.

Ossie attended Tulsa Public Schools: Hawthorne Elementary, Monroe Junior High School and Booker T. Washington HS where he graduated in the Mighty Class of 1978.

Upon graduating from high school Ossie was employed at First National Bank. He would later become employed at Melling Tool Rush Metals as a Machinist in Billings, Oklahoma, and for the past four years was employed at Dorada Foods in Ponca City, Oklahoma, where he was named Employee of the Month in 2017.

Ossie was an easy going, fun loving person who never met a stranger. His laid-back demeanor and easy-going spirit drew him to people. He LOVED to talk (boy did he love to talk), and had many, many friends from all walks of life. In his free time, he liked to roller skate, listen to old school music, and play dominoes.

Ossie Jr., was preceded in death by his father, Ossie LaVow, Sr., his sister, Serita Gail (who died at birth); grandparents, Milton and Effie Brown, and Dewey and Mary LaVow. He leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Sylvia LaVow, brothers, Gene (Geraldine) Biree and John Biree; sisters, Shelia (Val) Johnson, Cheri Richardson and Lisa (Carl) Henry LaVow; niece, LaTice Freeman, nephews: Jon Biree, Brandon Kemp, Stanley Mason and JaRod (Kandace) Richardson. In addition, he leaves many cousins, relatives and friends. He also leaves behind a very special friend to cherish his memory, Michelle Hall and her mother; and his many friends and co-workers at Dorada Foods in Ponca City, as well as his many friends and acquaintances in Tulsa.
