

Pamela Sue Davis

September 14, 1951 - March 19, 2025

Pamela Sue Davis, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on March 19, 2025, at the age of 73. She was born on September 14, 1951, in Farmington, New Mexico, and she lived in several places, but ultimately spent her last 27 years, which started on Valentine's Day 1998, making a home filled with love in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Pamela dedicated her career to serving others through her work at the Oklahoma State Department of Human Services. However, her greatest joy and purpose in life came from being a mother and grandmother—raising and nurturing not only her own seven amazing children but also many more as a devoted foster mother. Mamaw loved spending time with her grandchildren. They could do no wrong in her eyes, and each one was loved beyond measure. Her kindness and generosity touched countless lives, leaving a lasting legacy of love and care.

Beyond her family, Pamela found happiness in collecting miniature spoons and coffee cups, crocheting beautiful creations, listening to KXOJ, and floating down the river, a pastime that brought her peace and joy.

She is survived by her loving husband, James Davis; her brothers, Richard Blackburn and wife Bonnie, and Michael Blackburn; her children, Michelle Goldcamp, Jefferson Eskew and wife Aileen, Tammy Daniels, Justin Eskew and wife Kylie, Jada Lopez and husband Chanz, Raven Davis, and Dylon Davis. She also leaves behind many cherished grandchildren, extended family members, so many foster children, and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence Holly Blackburn and Patricia Ann Blackburn.
