

Patrick Kelly Franklin

August 13, 1966 - February 22, 2024

Patrick Kelly Franklin Born August 13, 1966 to Trudy Morris Franklin and Patrick Franklin in Tulsa Oklahoma

Kelly Graduated from Charles Page High School, Tulsa Junior College, Bachelor's Degree from Oklahoma State University and American Broadcasting School.

Kelly worked as a graphic artist for the Zimmerman agency in Florida, as Art Director for the Coggins agency on Arkansas. Kelly also worked briefly for the Walt Disney Company. Kelly has done freelance work for various companies, has worked with local bands for CD cover creation. Kelly once was the political cartoonist for "The Greater Tulsa Reporter" in Tulsa. He also did artwork for two award winning documentaries "Oil Capital Underground" and "Queen of Cakes" Kelly also worked as a disc Jockey for a radio station in Woodward Oklahoma.

Kelly's many talents were discovered at a young age in High School. He won the Oklahoma Congressional Art contest and his picture of a Tornado over Tulsa was displayed in the state capital and also in our Nation's capital in Washington DC.

Kelly's passions included creative design, acting, music and collecting vinyl records.

Kelly is survived by brother Monty Franklin

Sister in law Karen Franklin, nieces, cousins, uncles, Aunts.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

MAR 13. 11:00 AM (CT)

Lewis Avenue Church of God
4542 N Lewis
Tulsa, OK 74110