

Phillip Sebastian Randle

June 10, 1948 - February 27, 2020

Phillip Randle was born June 10, 1948 to Lessie Randle and Warner Randle Sr. in Tulsa Oklahoma. Phillip attended Ralph Bunche Elementary school, Mary Anderson Jr.High School. He later attended Booker T. High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Phillip moved to California with his older sister Wanda. In Los Angeles, he met Joyce Wedlow the love of his life.They birthed two daughters Ishonna Randle and Deishenna Randle as well as becoming the step father to James and Sherida.

Phillip was well known for his "Country boy" ways such as going fishing, cooking home cook meals, storytelling, and playing games with loved ones. Phillip was best known for his versatile game playing ways. He was an expert in Chess, Pool, Cards, and most importantly Dominoes. He also enjoyed watching the WWE Smackdown Wrestling Show. Watching Wrestling made Phillip's world light up. Phillip was an exquisite cook, serving up the best soul food dishes like none other. Phillip shared the importance of family values by spending time with his family in Los Angeles as well as in Tulsa.

Phillip held a soft spot for his mother Lessie Randle. He was a true "Mommas boy" and was there for his mother every step of the way. He served and helped his mother with joy and pride. His father, Warner Randle Sr., his sisters, Wanda Harris, Cathy Moore, and Doris McGee, preceded him in death.

Phillip Randle is survived by his mother Lessie Randle, who is 105 years old; Brothers Warner Randle Jr. and Paul Cherry; his children, daughters Ishonna (Momo), Deishenna Randle, and Stephanie Wallace; sons Phillip Randle Jr. and Stevie Wallace; as well as host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins.
