

Phillip David Witcher

May 14, 1952 - July 9, 2020

On Thursday, July 9, 2020, Phil Witcher, 68 passed away at home with his wife by his side.

Phil was born on May 14, 1952 in Delano, California to Forest and Mildred Witcher. He enjoyed a variety of career fields. He began his working career as a truck driver. Shortly afterward he moved into the field of education as a substitute English teacher. Phil later became a roughneck and a motorman in the oil fields of California. Eventually he moved to Oklahoma where he became a store clerk. Then he became a building maintenance Supervisor and finally ended his career as an automotive mechanic.

Phil had a passion for fishing, working on cars, collecting cars and collecting Mickey Mouse memorabilia. Most of all he was known for his boyish charm and humor.

Phil was preceded in death by his father and mother, Forest and Mildred Witcher. He is survived by his wife, Stephanie Pingleton; his brother Forrest (Patricia) Witcher; his six children which include three from a previous marriage. David Witcher of Las Vegas, Nevada, Donald Witcher of Sparks Nevada, Angela McDowall of Bakersfield, California, Michael Pingleton of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Heather Pingleton of Tulsa Oklahoma, Whitney Pingleton of Tulsa, Oklahoma; and six grandchildren.

Funeral Service will be Thursday, July 16, 2019 at Serenity Funerals and Crematory Chapel.

“ I am with a very heavy heart to find out about the passing of such a loving and all around great person/friend. The photos below is of one of my fondest memories of phil as we celebrated our birthdays together that year....As you can tell in the photos Phil really loved people especially those grand babies...My thoughts and prayers are with Ms Stephanie and family during this time of mourning. RIP my dear friend, you will always be loved and missed.....
