

Phyllis Marie Burks

July 24, 1951 - March 20, 2025

A Beautiful Baby girl was born July 14th, 1951, to Allean and Harding Faulk Sr. Phyllis Marie Burks was a proud graduate of Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Phyllis continued her education at Tulsa Technical College, where she became a master seamstress. In 1982, Phyllis moved to Houston, Texas, where she worked as a master seamstress for Bride and Formal, showcasing her incredible talent and craftsmanship in the world of bridal and formal wear. Her work touched many lives, as she meticulously designed and altered beautiful gowns for countless clients. In addition to her accomplishments in the sewing world, Phyllis also found joy and purpose in her work at Jewel Child Care Center. She cherished every moment spent with the children she cared for, always ready with a loving heart and nurturing spirit. Her impact on their lives was immeasurable, as she treated each child with the same warmth and affection she gave her own family. Phyllis is Proceeded in death by her beloved husband, Jerry Burks, her partner, Lamar Lewis, and her siblings: Charlene Crawford, Donald Faulk, Levon Jackson, Levell Davis, Kennard Davis, and Victoria Davis.

“ Dear Family,

I'm sorry I can't be there with you but in spirit and heart I will always be present. When Phyllis and I were young, I thought of her as my "big sister," even though I was a year older. As an adult, I came to know her as a strong and independent woman who had overcome several tragedies in her life.

Rest in peace, my beautiful sister.
