“ I am so blessed to have known you. Just a few verses from Proverbs that come to my mind when thinking of Rexie.

10Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
11The heart of her husband does safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. 12She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. 13She seeks wool, and flax, and works willingly with her hands. 14She is like the merchants' ships; she brings her food from afar. 15She rises also while it is yet night, and gives meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. 16She considers a field, and buys it: with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. 17She girds her loins with strength, and strengthens her arms. 18She perceives that her merchandise is good: her candle goes not out by night. 19She lays her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. 20She stretches out her hand to the poor; yes, she reaches forth her hands to the needy. 21She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. 22She makes herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. 23Her husband is known in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land. 24She makes fine linen, and sells it; and delivers girdles to the merchant. 25Strength and honor are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. 26She opens her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. 27She looks well to the ways of her household, and eats not the bread of idleness. 28Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. 29Many daughters have done virtuously, but you excel them all. 30Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that fears the LORD, she shall be praised. 31Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

“ We were so very surprised to learn of Rexie's death. Rexie meant a great deal to Ed as she served as his secretary for many years and made life much easier for him by taking care of his correspondence and other tasks. She carried out each assignment with grace and willingness. We will miss her Christmas cards and short messages.

“ Rexie
I worked with you for 18 years. it was so hard for me the day you retired and i knew you wouldn't be in your office anymore. I still called and checked on you and Elvis sure wished after you retired you felt better and could have enjoyed it a little more:(. You will be missed so much. I will cherish the memories.
