☆To Yo and Richards Family ☆

I just wanted to say thank you so much for sharing such a good man with me and the world, im sure some of you may not have wanted to, but thank u for doing so anyways i have only known Richard for about 2 years now, very short time and I wish I had known him longer.He was a very smart man.and he may have had a hard shell but occasionally could see that hes very caring but I guess he felt he had to add a little extra protection...i remember I was scared to talk to him at first, i thought he was mean and scary...but i slowly started talking to him more..at first by Notes, i left him notes every chance i got...lol, but after a little bit i realized, he wasnt scary or mean at all...he was actually super funny and his smile was so contagious, anyways, I hope this will bring a smile to one of yalls faces during this time of grieving, and i send my condolences to everyone who knee him because i know everyone who knew him will definitely miss him. Thank You Again For Sharing Such A Great Person!!

And I Love You Londa! Call/Text me!
