“ I greatly enjoyed all the stories Uncle Rick would share, they always made me laugh. And I will never forget the time we all headed to the storm shelter and the wind was blowing so hard it blew all the canvas off Uncle Ricks umbrella and all that was left was the wires on the umbrealla he, Jackie and I laughed so hard we cried looking at his wire umbrella once we made it to the cellar, that memory always makes me laugh and smile. Most of all I will remember how kind Rick was to me. Uncle Rick we love you and you will truly be missed. Fly high with the Angels.
