

Sai Vue Xiong

May 4, 1946 - September 10, 2017

Sai Vue Xiong, 71 years of age, had passed away due to liver cirrhosis on Sunday, September 10, 2017 at his youngest son's residence in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was born on May 4, 1946 in Na Cha Na Choong, Laos to Pa Cheng Xiong and Blia Vang. He had spent half of his life in Laos and Thailand. The other half was spent in the United States of America, where he immigrated to California first after his long hard contributions as a soldier during the Secret War.

Sai Vue was a very dedicated husband and a very loving father. In the Hmong community he was both an elderly role model and a spiritual shaman of the Nhiasher family. His younger years were spent struggling to survive the hardships of the Secret War along with his friends and families. After the inevitable immigration to the United States of America, he lived his life peacefully and to the fullest with his friends and families..

Sai Vue was a devastating loss for his wife Mai Yee Vue. He has four sons and one daughter. His oldest son is Neng Vang Xiong and daughter in law Mee Moua. His second son Chong Moua Xiong and daughter in law Chong Moua. His third son is Ker Xiong and daughter in law Boudsaban Thoa. His youngest son is Chao Xiong and his Daughter in Law Aimee Lee, And his only daughter is Pa Houa Xiong and son in law Pao Yang. He will be forever missed by all of his brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, grandkids and cousins.

Sai Vue Xiong's funeral ceremony will be held on Saturday, September 30, 2017 from 7am until 9 am on Monday, October 2, 2017 at Serenity Funerals & Crematory, 4170 E. Admiral Place, Tulsa, OK 74115. All guests are welcome to attend our great loss. The family will also like to give thanks to everyone for their time and effort in our time of need. Thank you everyone!
