

Samuel Nathan Yeahquo

March 16, 1982 - January 13, 2023

Samuel Nathan Yeahquo age 40 of Tulsa, OK, traveled on his journey home on January 13th, 2023. Samuel was born to Robert Yeahquo and Debra Story on March 19th 1982. His Paternal grandparents were Mary and Maurice Yeahquo and maternal grandparents were CT and Jo Story. Samuel is from the Kiowa tribe (paternal) and Creek (maternal). Samuel was a direct decendent of Guipago (Old Chief Lonewolf) and Chief Red Cloud of the Ogalala Lakota, Tanedooah/Tainpeah family and Samuel Toppah-Yellowhair.

Samuel attended Coweta Schools where he was a typical boy who like to swim and play with friends, also enjoyed playing soccer and basketball. In his 20s Samuel met and fell in love with Sandy Price. They were wed in 2000. They raised their kids together in the Tulsa area close to friends and family, their children are son, Vincent was born in 2002 and Kora Kai in 2003. Samuel loved his children very much and enjoyed spending time with his wife and children.

Samuel will be remembered for his great smile and how he liked to joke and make people laugh. He had a deep love for music and animals. He also loved to draw, read, take walks and was interested in science. He had a kind soul and his sisters called him their "Gentle Giant".

Samuel is survived by, his two children Vincent Yeahquo 20yrs and Kora Kai

Yeahquo 19yrs, his father, Robert and wife Elida Yeahquo, his mother Debra and husband Walker Story, his siblings, Dana Yeahquo, Dawn Yeahquo and Caleb Bark, his step-siblings Mario Flores, Angela Hamilton, Jerilee Thomas and Zachary Yarbrough, and many friends and family

Samuel is preceded in death by grandparents Maurice and Mary Yeahquo (paternal) and CT and Jo Story (maternal), Aunts Marilyn and Doris, and cousins Tennyson and Jeremy Reid and Elizabeth Yeahquo and niece Chelsea.

Wake Service will be 6pm to 9pm Thursday January 19, 2023 at the Tulsa Indian United Methodist Church, 1901 N College Ave, Tulsa, Oklahoma.
Funeral Service will be 1pm Friday January 20, 2023 at Serenity Funerals and Cremation Chapel.

Previous Events

Wake

JAN 19. 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM (CT)

Tulsa Indian UNited Methodist Church
1911 N College
Tulsa, OK 74110

Funeral

JAN 20. 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM (CT)

Serenity Funerals and Crematory
4170 East Admiral Place
Tulsa, OK 74115

Tribute Wall

LP

“ I remember Samuel in church! His father, Robert, went to Higher Dimensions, a Christian church in Tulsa. I best remember Samuel when he'd go to a prayer meeting there with his dad. They even attended the prayer meeting on Halloween one year, I believe. Those memories encourage me to believe that Samuel must be with Jesus now. Our Lord Jesus is so merciful & loving. He knows how Samuel struggled ...& I trust he gave his life to Jesus when young!

Lesya Powsey - February 17, 2023 at 10:38 PM

“ R.I.P Sam I will forever cherish all the memories I have with you! Always laughing, joking and dancing! We had so many great times! Love you so much and you will be greatly missed!!

Jennifer Smiley - January 20, 2023 at 01:53 PM

CE

“ I love you uncle Sam! You were so crazy and funny. I'll never forget the music you showed me or the game cube games you used to play and show me....There are a lot of bad memories but those do not outweigh the good ones that involved you. You always made me feel welcome, safe (most of the time lol), and most importantly I knew you would be there if I needed you. I'm sorry I never got to see you after that time I came to your apartment where you, Sandy, Vincent and Kora lived on Yale....but I wish I could have seen you one last time. I hope you are at peace now and don't hurt anymore. I hope you get that chocolate cookie candy covered ice cream cake you always talked about LOL.
ATHINAAAA A.K.A. Christina out.....

Christina Ebahotubbi - January 19, 2023 at 12:33 PM