

Sandra Louise Weixelbaum

August 19, 1970 - April 9, 2024

Sandra Louise Weixelbaum(Chew)

Born 8/19/1970

Died 4/9/2024

She fought her illness with such grace. She fought the good fight!

Sandra dedicated 30 years of her life to the nursing field as a CNA. She was especially dedicated to helping those suffering from Alzheimers.

She was a dedicated wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, daughter and friend.

She leaves behind her husband Michael Ray Chew, her daughter Willow Freeman, her sisters Bobbie Baird and Pamela Lee, two granddaughters Ellie and Evie Freeman, son-in-law Nick Freeman, Father Don Trower, mother-in-law Malinda Chew, sister-in-law Tonja Meeks and brother-in-law Randy Meeks, her very special friend Kimberly Bloss, and many other friends and family.

She was proceeded in death by her mom Eleanor Trower, her brother Kenny J. Zabienski, her father-in-law James Chew and two nieces Danielle Weixelbaum and Brittany Lee.

Tribute Wall

“ Seeing her with her grandbaby. My first baby after 13 years of trying. She knew how much I wanted to have a baby. And when I told her she was over the moon. She was beyond excited when she found out she was finally going to be a Grandma. She loved Ellie Belle so much and spoiled her as much as she could. I am so beyond grateful she was at least able to meet her and spend time with her.

Willow Freeman - April 15, 2024 at 02:33 PM

MC

Other than you being born because all she talked about when we met was having a baby you having Ellie was the highlight of her life.

Michael Chew - April 15, 2024 at 04:47 PM

MC

“ My life would not be complete without having shared my life with her. She gave me a beautiful daughter and the deepest of her love.

Michael Chew - April 15, 2024 at 02:20 PM

SO

Beautiful thoughts and words Mike...

steven owen - April 16, 2024 at 02:28 AM