“ Scarlett was so wonderful to me! Almost 20 years ago now, I worked with her, and I had the marvelous privilege of learning cake decoration from her. She had such a funny sense of humor and a kind heart. I really love her. I wish I had kept in touch after I moved away. All my love to her family and friends. Anna

“ She was a beautiful lady. I have many fond memories of us when we were young, growing up as cousins. We lost touch through the years but we met again about 11 years ago when her and Loretta came to my Mom's funeral . We did some catching up and it was wonderful to see them again ! Much love to all of you, her family ! God Bless You . Susan Waits Gentle “ Rest in Peace, my friend. I am for ever grateful for our little Sunday School bible study that Shelley Spears created for those of us who came to worship without a spouse....I learned so much, and learned how to truly talk to God with you, Shelley, and the others...
