Went to school with Scott from the 2nd grade through graduating high school (Nixa High School, Class of 1975). He was a really nice guy. He is dearly missed by everyone in our class.

“ We put down a lot of whiskey over the years. I met him when he was working in the metal Fab shop behind our rental store. He was a stand up friend. One night as I was getting ready to leave my house he pulled up on his bike and said Mike I really got to talk to you man. Friends always come first come on in let's have a shot I said you seem to be pretty shook up. Well after a couple shots he told me he'd just come from the bar down the street Gabrielle's. He walked in there and thought it was his lucky night. He said there wasn't another guy in the bar and it was full of women. He told me he sat down at the bar and start talking to a really beautiful woman when all of a sudden he felt a hand on his shoulder and heard a woman's voice say are you messing with my woman? He said he turned around and looked up at the biggest girl he'd ever seen and then he realized it was dyke night and he wasn't going to fit in. He said as a matter of fact it looked like it might get kind of rough for him so he came right over to my house. And he was still trying to get it right in his head when he showed up. We had a few more shots and we both laughed about the situation. When my wife died he was right there for me he was a good friend.
