

Shane Keith Daniels

November 6, 1988 - August 16, 2020

Shane Keith Daniels passed this life on Sunday, August 16, 2020. He was born on November 6, 1988 in Fayetteville, Arkansas to his parents Keith Allen Daniels and Kathy Ann Daniels. Shane was an artist and a modern day drifter. He was passionate about painting, drawing and designing. When it came to art, Shane was not just passionate about it, he was good at it. He enjoyed music of all kinds including the Beatles, Journey, Tom Petty and the Rolling Stones. Shane had a profound love for animals, especially cats, specifically his cat named Callie. Throughout his life, he always had a variety of animals. Shane loved the mountains and the rivers, and through their beauty he would prefer to be there than any other place in the world. Among all of Shane's amazing characteristics and the impact he had on others, he was an amazing son, friend and the best brother anyone could have asked for. He is the type of person you never forget once you meet him. He truly is a light in so many lives, and is loved by so many.

Shane is survived by his mother Kathy Daniels and stepfather Dale Campbell; brother Matt Daniels; sisters Megan Daniels and Holly Daniels; grandparent's Grandma Glenna and Grandma Miller; aunt Sue and uncle Randy; girlfriend April Richey; other family members Tabitha, Marty, and Clark Richey; best friends Jacob Horton, Shiloh Gaspard, Sky Hovey, and Sunshine Dawn Gullet, along with many other family members and friends who will cherish his memory forever.
