

Shane Jackson Dean

March 8, 1979 - December 6, 2025

Shane Jackson Dean, 46, of Cushing, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on December 6, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Born on March 8, 1979, in Cushing to Hank and Pam Dean, Shane was a loving son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend. A gifted musician, he found great joy in playing his guitar and writing songs.

Throughout his life, Shane worked at Wiley Transformer in Cushing, Almighty Construction, and also served as a bartender at The Buckhorn Bar. He was known for his musicianship, kindness, and sense of humor. In his younger years, he earned the rank of Eagle Scout, a testament to his dedication and character. He loved spending time outdoors, making music, and being with his friends.

Shane is survived by his sister, Danielle Dean Davis, and her husband, Mark Davis; his Uncle Jay and Aunt Kathy Dean; Uncle Mike and Aunt Mina Turner; and his cousins Lynn McCabe and her husband Mark; John Turner and his wife Amanda, and Tracy Turner and his wife Kimberly. He also leaves behind two honorary brothers, Jeremiah Hurst and Brandon Gailey, along with many friends who loved him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Hank and Pam Dean, and his grandparents, Lawrence and Maxine Turner.

A Celebration of Life service will be announced at a later date.

Tribute Wall

MC

“ Oh Deaners to think I'll never hear any more crazy stories or have more adventures with you makes me so sad. We had good times muddn' on my 4 wheelers, listening to good tunes cruising the back roads & randomly in recent times playing pool & playing darts. You always made sure to have a good time! We miss you & love you & my heart goes out to your family & everyone missing you!

Monica Calhoun - December 18, 2025 at 07:02 PM

NK

“ Throw back in the 90s - Shane: thanks for your Voice I was amazed by every time I was able to listen to your Jam Sessions in Cushing. I light a candle in Germany for you - keep on rockin' up there till we meet all again

Nadine Kurp - December 09, 2025 at 04:08 PM

JC

“ Shane was one of my oldest friends and band mates. I played music with him in several projects over the years. More than that, he was my friend. I enjoyed every moment I spent with him. There was only ever one Shane Dean. There will never be another. You will be missed brother.

Jim Calhoun - December 09, 2025 at 09:34 AM

NK

Nadine Kurp - December 09, 2025 at 03:56 PM

AR

There was only one ever Shane Dean. There will never be another.

Amber Richardson - December 10, 2025 at 09:18 AM

AR

**ever one* ❤️

Amber Richardson - December 10, 2025 at 09:30 AM

MC

Monica Calhoun - December 18, 2025 at 07:03 PM

KR

“ I met Shane a few times in Matfield Green, KS when he and his dad would come up to join Jess Dean’s band and make great music. I have a fond memory of pickin’ and grinnin’ with him out under the evening stars by the Bunkhouse in Matfield....just wrote a little tune tonight

“Singing with Shane under the Stars” he was a great talent and a wonderful soul....RIP Shane

Karl Rohlich - December 09, 2025 at 12:56 AM

“ Shane you always had me laughing. Rip

Keri Durham - December 08, 2025 at 03:42 PM