“ John 14:27 (NIV)

Jesus talking to His disciples encouraged them saying "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid".

I pray God's peace to the family and friends. The God peace that goes beyond understanding. Shante is now at peace just as she had prayed for.

Love you Shante!

“ Come to me all of you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest. for i am gentle and humble in heart and you will find rest for your souls Matthew 11:28-29.

I remember the precious moments, that Shante' and I spent together, the awesome cruise, we went on together, and the glamour photos we took.. The smile that she always carried, no matter how much pain she was in.. her laughter which permeated the room. The joy she felt when I visited her in OK, on her birthday. The celebrations we had that week, and the inspiration she gave to me and others, inspite of her pain and suffering. The many updates about her condition, which were always positive, regardless of the report that she had received.

Many might say that her life was cut short, however, she led a very productive life. She received a Masters Degree in the field of Social Work, she graduated from bible colledge and went on mission trips. She finished her course and is now with Jesus. No more pain or sorrow, and her dignity has been restored. We must now fulfill God's purpose for our lives, and finish our course. Elinor (also known to Shante as Aunt Elinor)
