“ She was such a beautiful person, i remember even when she was in the hospital she still had her sense of humor. She loved her tv, when there was a big power outage we had to stay at a hotel, and she woke me up at 4am to go to the front fest because the tv wasn't working, she couldn't sleep without her forensic files. in 6th grade i started playing the flute, i was so happy to tell her because she also played the flute in her earlier years. she was so happy.
