Steven Dale Collins

January 25, 1955 - June 09 , 2020

Steven Dale Collins was born to Delbert Faye Collins and Ruby Dorlene (Edwards) Collins of Tulsa.

Steve grew up in west Tulsa and had a happy childhood. He played baseball and basketball. He graduated from Charles Page High school where he lettered in basketball and made all state and held many records. He earned a scholarship for basketball and furthered his education at North Eastern State. He was majoring in physical education

Sometime in the 1980s he met the one gal that would hold down his love, Sherry Morrison. She already had to children and I think Steve fell in love with them as much as her and they settled down a bit and in 1991 here came Steve li'l bundle of joy and their love of sports and athleticism let him do his dream of being coach. He loved coaching Mason and Rocky Phillip and Andy, then they grew up and he loved when his grand kids would come over and his nieces and nephews. I know he is going to crash through those pearly gates. We will miss you every day.

He was preceded in death by both Delbert And Ruby, his loving wife Sherry Elaine Morrison and Grandpa Jim and Ray and Velma Collins.

He is survived by Three sons Mason Dale Collins of Tulsa Rickie Edward Stamey and wife Brittany Stamey and 4 children of Tulsa OK and Charles Rufus Stamey and wife Mary Stamey and 4 children of California, and brother Larry Collins of Tulsa OK
