“ Hi my name is Camilla and I lived with Steve for a little while about year before his murder. I was actually the last person he had spoken to before he was murdered. He reached out to me after he was released from the hospital and wanted to show me how great he was doing considering the rough road he was on before. I was so amazed at his progress and so proud of him and his sobriety and his new life. He cooked me dinner the sunday before his murder and we visited and watched television for several hours. I am so very fortunate to have known Steven and to have gotten to spend that little bit of time with him before some unfortunate circumstances caused him to be taken from all of his family and friends. I miss him very much and think of him often. I pray for his family and I pray that Steven has found peace and is reunited with his wife whom he loved and missed dearly in heaven. Steven and I bonded because we were kind of going through similar situations at the same time both kissed the loves of our lives at the same time and we're both married for 18 years. We had so much in common and got alot great. He was a very respectful, considerate, thoughtful person and loved helping people and doing the right thing. He was lonely at times but was always happy to be alive and had a smile on his face. He wanted people to be happy. He made me feel safe and we took good care of each other and were there for each other during a tough time. I will never forget him and will always miss him. I would like to send condolences to his sister and remaining family and all of his living friends who genuinely knew and loved Steven. I like to think I was one of those friends for him and was always there when he needed me. He deserved good friendships he was a great friend himself. I love and miss you Steve.

Sincerely,
Your friend,
Camilla Blackowl
