“ The big sister i never had but the good lord blessed me with and even though we didn't talk everyday or see eachother as much as we should have i will forever cherish the talks and advice u would so kindly give me. You never had negative energy or advice for me but u always made sure i knew exactly what u meant when u said it. U would always say i love u sister and I'm gonna miss that so much. However I'm goin turn up the YouTube and jam to our karaoke how we would do together. "True Love" and "Mr. Know it all" i know u will be looking down smiling and surely laughing because we literally played this on repeatlol.... The talks we had and prayed about I'm so blessed to have seen and been there for it and to see the good lord put it all in your hands and hear your prayers was the most powerful moments together. U are now a Angel in HEAVEN as u was on earth. We all love u so very much and we will never forget the beautiful soul who went home to be with the lord and we will cherish every memory and we will keep making them in your honor. Till that glorious day sister when i see u again. I love u Susan 🙏💜🙏

“ I sometimes struggle to understand God's purpose, and this is sure one of those times! My heart and prayers go out to Will and the kids, as well as all Susan's family and friends.

I envision Susan sitting at the foot of God's throne looking up at him with a glow of peace and tranquility in her heart and on her face! It gives me comfort.

*Your friend always,
