

Sylvia Ann Robles

June 10, 1956 - September 5, 2019

Sylvia Ann Turrietta was born 6/10/56 and passed away peacefully while surrounded by family on 9/5/19. Sylvia was exceptionally close to and dearly loved by her family. She was a valued conversationalist (especially with her late mother) and loved to have fun. Saturday night family gatherings and BINGO will be sorely missed. Her family enjoyed years of gambling, bowling, and vacationing (even along with her multiple overpacked luggages) with her. She never forgot a holiday and was always first to send a gift or arrive with a pineapple upside-down cake. She kept a meticulous yard, cared for pets, and made the best carne guisada. She always turned to her savior, Jesus Christ, for guidance and support.

Sylvia Ann is greeted in Heaven by her mother Rosie C Turrietta. She is survived by her father Sisto L Turrietta; her sisters Mary Alice Rodriguez and Roselyn Carol Cuellar; her children Denise Carmona, Yvonne Sanchez, and Yvette Ruiz; her sons-in-law Eddie Sanchez and Cornelio Ruiz; her adored grandchildren Antonio, Emily, Kristyn, Valerie, David, and Cristoval; her niece and nephews; and extended family throughout Texas, New Mexico, and California.

“ We shared so much together as sisters. I loved Syl dearly. Not a day will go by that I won't miss her or think of her. Although my heart aches, I am content that she is at peace. My condolences to all who feel her loss. Love you always Sis!
