

Syvilai Vongphachanh

June 19, 1981 - September 24, 2024

Syvilai Vongphachanh, born on June 19, 1981, in a refugee camp in Nong Khai, Thailand, was a testament to resilience and family bonds. His family fled Laos seeking a better life, first finding refuge in Thailand before moving to the Philippines in November 1984. They eventually settled in Berkeley, California, on November 30, 1985.

Throughout his life, Syvilai lived in both Berkeley and Oakland before relocating to Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was preceded in death by his father, Saythong Vongphachanh. Syvilai is survived by his devoted mother, Bounheuang Vongphachanh; his four cherished children, Kaysone, Kaylanah, Kayden, and Kayleigh; his loving sisters, Chanthasone and Sandy; his brothers, Sonesai and Johnny; and a multitude of nieces and nephews.

Syvilai's warmth and love will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

“ Words can't explain my love for you despite what we went through. The bond we shared as your first daughter was compared to no other, you were my best friend ❤️! I will never forget the way you ALWAYS had personal talks with me and my brother in reminder that I will always be your princess 👑. Your humorous, charismatic, and hustling self will forever live through me. I love you Kilo G him self 🍷

“ As I sit here trying to find the words to express the memories I have of us tears roll down my face. Both tears of joy and sadness you had a very big heart and I know you loved your children so much. I'm sorry I wasn't there for you I had to be there for our children. God has away of making us go through turmoil in our lives to take as a lesson to be learned. I know your in a better place now and are able to watch over your children as they grow. I know your no longer suffering with depression and guilt. I will always love and cherish the fond memories we had together as I share them with our children.. We love you always Daddy Kilo G !! Rest in heaven 🙏🙏🙏

“ Syvilai aka Kykham aka Kilo G, my brother💙! I know the road you were on was dark and lonely. I know at times you probably felt like you had no one. Rest assure you ALWAYS had us. We were waiting for you. I know I prayed so hard for so long for you to make that call, I never got it. I told you then I always got you, and I'm (we're) here now making sure we send you off with grace and dignity. I hope you find peace, comfort, and rest easy! You will be missed. We love you💙🕊️ Say hi and hug dad for us. Tell him we miss him and we love him so much!
