“ Vickie was more than just my mother-in-law for 17 years, she stepped up to be my mom when my own failed me. She helped me and Corey out more times than I can count. She practically raised our daughter, Sydney, for the first 5 years of her life while Corey and I were at work. When our son, Austin, came along, she helped with him as well. But, Syd & Vickie shared a special bond. She taught me how to cook brown beans, Corey's favorite, and Chicken & Dumplings. I've gotten better over the years, but I'll never be as good as Vickie was. I loved her dearly and will miss her with every beat of my heart.

“ I will always remember Vickie’s huge heart, her love for children (hers and nieces and nephews), the love she had for family and for her ability to make a great meal! My heart hurts for you boys, Nick and Cory, but find comfort in the knowledge that she has left her earthly home and us for a short time but one day we will be all together again! Prayers for peace and comfort!
