

Wanda Mae Standridge

February 21, 1934 - July 18, 2017

Wanda M. Standridge went to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, July 18, 2017 in Cleveland, Oklahoma. Wanda was born to Victor Yager Smith and Elizabeth (Floyd) Smith on February 21, 1934 in Borger, Texas. Wanda grew up in the Jennings area and graduated from Jennings High School. She met William Moody and they were married in Jennings and later divorced. To this union one daughter, Helen Marie was born. Later Wanda met and married Bert Andrews Standridge on April 6, 1977.

Wanda and Bert made their home in Mannford and enjoyed many years together boating and fishing on Lake Keystone. Wanda was active in the Mannford community serving as Mayor during the late 1990's. She was very proud of her accomplishments as Mayor and being a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Wanda was an active member of the First Baptist Church and in her later years cooked on Wednesday nights with her friends. She especially loved cooking for her church and helping with VBS.

Wanda is survived by her daughter, Helen Barker of Stillwater, Oklahoma; daughter Lawana Standridge Looney (Darrell) of Cushing, Oklahoma; sons, Robert (Darla) Standridge of Conroe, Texas, Michael Standridge and fiancée Kelli Blackwell of Tulsa and Bryan (Joy) Standridge of Princeton, North Carolina; nine grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren; a brother, Joe Smith and wife Kay. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, four sisters and one brother.

Memorial Service will be held at 2:00 pm, Saturday, July 29, 2017 at the First Baptist Church in Mannford with Rev. James Beck officiating.

Serenity Funeral Home and Crematory, Tulsa, Oklahoma.
